Edited by acclaimed author Anita Heiss, Cattle Camp Uqp is a groundbreaking anthology of stories, essays, and poems by some of the most talented Black Australian writers working today. This collection offers a unique and powerful insight into the lives and experiences of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples in Australia.

The book's title, Cattle Camp, is a reference to the traditional gathering places where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people would come together to share stories, songs, and dances. In this spirit, Cattle Camp Uqp brings together a diverse range of voices and perspectives, all of which offer a unique contribution to the rich tapestry of Black Australian literature.

The writers in Cattle Camp Uqp explore a wide range of themes, including identity, culture, history, and the challenges of living in a predominantly white society. Their stories are told with honesty, humor, and passion, and they offer a powerful reminder of the resilience and strength of the Black Australian community.

Cattle Camp Uqp is a must-read for anyone interested in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander literature, and it is a powerful addition to the growing body of work by Black Australian writers. This book is a celebration of Black Australian culture and history, and it is a testament to the power of storytelling.
