Through the eyes of award-winning author and journalist Jon Mooallem, you'll journey deep into the heart of Alaska's Arctic, where temperatures plummet to 40 below and the landscape transforms into a breathtaking icy wonderland. Along the way, you'll encounter an unforgettable cast of characters, each with their own unique story to tell.

Meet the Unforgettable Characters of the Far North

From the bush pilots who navigate treacherous skies to the subsistence hunters who provide for their families in the unforgiving wilderness, each person you meet in 'Don't You Know It 40 Below' embodies the indomitable spirit of Alaska's remote communities.

- Witness the extraordinary journey of a young woman who leaves behind the comforts of city life to embrace the challenges of the Arctic.
- Discover the heartwarming story of an elderly couple who have spent their entire lives living off the land in a remote cabin.
- Be inspired by the unwavering determination of a community that bands together to overcome the devastating effects of a wildfire.

Explore the Vanishing Way of Life in the Arctic

'Don't You Know It 40 Below' not only captures the personal stories of Alaska's northern residents but also provides a glimpse into a rapidly disappearing way of life. As technology and globalization encroach on these remote communities, the traditional practices and values that have sustained them for generations are under threat.

Through Mooallem's vivid prose, you'll experience the Arctic's unique ecosystem, its abundant wildlife, and the profound connection that its people have with their ancestral lands.
