

Joan of Arc: A Historical Epic

Joan of Arc was a 15th-century French peasant girl who led the French army to victory over the English during the Hundred Years' War. She was later captured by the English and burned at the stake as a heretic. Joan of Arc has been a source of inspiration for centuries, and her story continues to fascinate and inspire people today.

Joan of Arc was born in the village of Domrémy, France, in 1412. Her parents were poor peasants, and she grew up in a devoutly Catholic household. At the age of 13, Joan began to experience visions of the Archangel Michael, Saint Margaret, and Saint Catherine. These visions told her that she was destined to lead the French army to victory over the English.
