What is the NCAC Exam?

The NCAC exam is a national certification exam for addiction counselors. It is administered by the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) and is designed to assess the knowledge and skills of addiction counselors.

The exam is divided into four sections:

- Assessment and Diagnosis

- Counseling
- Treatment Planning
- Professionalism and Ethics

To pass the NCAC exam, you must score a minimum of 70% on each section. The exam is offered in two levels, Level I and Level II. Level I is for addiction counselors who have a bachelor's degree in a related field. Level II is for addiction counselors who have a master's degree in a related field.
