Excerpt from Sentinel: The Fifth Covenant Novel

Anya stared at the ancient Covenant, her heart pounding in her chest. She could feel the power coursing through her veins, the power of the sentinel. She knew that she had to use this power to protect the Covenant, to protect the world.

She took a deep breath and stepped into the circle of light. The world around her seemed to shimmer and change, and she felt a surge of energy flow through her body. She was the sentinel, the protector of the Covenant.

She knew that she had a long and dangerous journey ahead of her, but she was not afraid. She was the sentinel, and she would protect the Covenant, no matter what.
