The story revolves around two estranged friends, Belinda and Cara. Belinda, the narrator, is a young woman grappling with the fallout of a traumatic event. Cara, once her closest confidante, has retreated into the shadows, leaving Belinda bewildered and yearning for closure.

As Belinda delves into Cara's online presence, she stumbles upon an unsettling discovery. An anonymous Twitter account, @FindYouAnyway, has been relentlessly posting personal details about Belinda, including her darkest secrets. Panic and paranoia consume her as she realizes the extent of the stalker's obsession.

Driven by a desperate need to uncover the truth, Belinda teams up with Sam, a tech-savvy friend who helps her navigate the treacherous world of online surveillance. Together, they embark on a dangerous investigation, determined to expose the voyeur's identity.

As they delve deeper into the investigation, Belinda and Sam confront the dark underbelly of social media and the chilling ease with which people's lives can be manipulated. They encounter individuals who revel in the thrill of online stalking, using their anonymity as a shield to indulge in their twisted desires.

Jackson's writing is both immersive and unsettling, capturing the claustrophobic paranoia that Belinda experiences as the stalker's grip tightens. The novel's pacing is expertly calibrated, building tension with each revelation until the explosive climax.

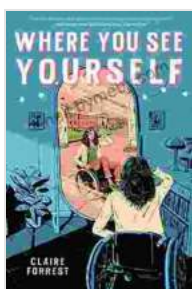

Beyond its gripping plot, 'Where You See Yourself' explores thought-provoking themes of friendship, betrayal, and the dangerous power of technology. Jackson delves into the complex dynamics between Belinda and Cara, examining the fragility of trust and the corrosive effects of secrets.

The novel also sheds light on the alarming prevalence of online stalking and its devastating consequences. Jackson sensitively portrays the emotional turmoil and sense of violation that victims endure, highlighting the urgent need for awareness and protection.

Through its well-developed characters and intricate plot, 'Where You See Yourself' offers a chilling reminder of the dangers that lurk in the digital shadows. It is a powerful and disturbing novel that will stay with readers long after they finish its final page.

If you enjoy psychological thrillers that explore the dark side of human behavior and the impact of technology on our lives, then 'Where You See Yourself' is a must-read. Holly Jackson has crafted a masterpiece that is both gripping and thought-provoking, leaving an indelible mark on the literary landscape.
