A Life-Changing Encounter

Against this harrowing backdrop, fate brought together two extraordinary individuals: Richard and Francesca Nový. As young lovers, they embarked on a life-changing journey that would forever alter their destinies. Richard, a Jewish doctor, and Francesca, a Czech nurse, navigated the treacherous waters of war and occupation, their love serving as an indomitable beacon of hope.

Richard and Francesca Nový, whose love story is chronicled in "Under Cruel Star"

From Liberation to Communist Oppression

Liberation from Nazi rule brought a glimmer of hope, but it was swiftly extinguished by the Soviet-backed communist regime. The Novýs, now parents to two young children, faced new challenges as the freedoms they had fought for were gradually eroded.

The Prague Spring and Beyond

In 1968, the Prague Spring brought forth a brief flicker of hope for改革, but it was brutally crushed by the Soviet invasion. The Novýs, like countless others, witnessed the dreams of a free and democratic Czechoslovakia shattered once more.

The Prague Spring of 1968, when hopes for改革 were briefly kindled

A Legacy of Determination and Resilience

"Under Cruel Star" is not merely a historical account; it is a testament to the indomitable spirit of the human soul. Through the Novýs' journey, we witness the resilience of ordinary people who faced extraordinary challenges. Their stories serve as a powerful reminder of the darkness that can descend upon society and the unwavering hope that can light the way even in the most desperate of times.
